

Incunable Productions

Incunable Productions is pleased to announce the successful completion of its first round of funding. Incunable Productions (“IP”) is a new partnership formed for the purpose of acquiring and developing literary properties for international film and television projects. IP seeks to exploit the opportunity arising from significant changes to the way content is created, monetized and experienced.

Founded by Hollywood and Wall Street veterans, IP is mandated with the objective of tangible financial returns for its investors. Co-founders Matt Kennedy and Barbara Brandfass have partnered to develop a portfolio of diverse and commercially viable genres by cost-competitive means. Kennedy of Relentless Pictures and Created By is a former Miramax and United Artists executive. Brandfass was most recently Senior Vice President of Business Development for The Receivables Exchange, a Bain Capital financed start-up and previously served as Principal at Bank of America in Strategic Development for Global Structured Products. Prior to obtaining her MBA from Cornell University, Brandfass was a script reader and story analyst for an independent production company in LA.
